The Pharisee and the Publican. From an old engraving.

Once Again Novelist Lays Emphasis on the Virtue of Humility in Heart of Man

ed, and was buried. And in Hell, he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and saw Abraham afar off, and Lazarus. And he cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and dip my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame.' But Abraham said, 'Son, remember that in thy life time, thou receivedst good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things. But now, he is comforted and thou art tormented.'

2ND CHAPTER OTHER
...because of the Pharisee, who had just
...once went up into
...the Temple, to pray, of
...whom our Lord Jesus
...and the Publican. The
...Pharisee said, 'I thank
...Thee, that I am not
...as other men are, who
...as this Publican. The
...Publican, standing afar off,
...would not lift up his eyes
...to Heaven, but struck his
...breast, and only said, 'God, merciful to me, a Sinner.' And God, our Saviour told them, would be merciful to him, rather than the other, and would be better pleased with his prayer, because he made it with a humble and a lowly heart.

THE PHARISEES were so angry at being taught these things, that they employed some spies to ask Our Saviour questions and try to entrap Him, and saying something against the Law. The Emperor of that country, who was called Caesar, having commanded tribute-money to be regularly paid to him by the people, and being cruel against any one who disputed his right to it, these spies thought they might, perhaps, induce our Saviour to say it was an unjust payment, and so to bring himself under the Emperor's displeasure. Therefore, pretending to be very humble, they came to Him and said, 'Master, you teach the word of God rightly, and do not respect persons on account of their wealth or high station. Tell us is it lawful that we should pay tribute to Caesar?'

CHRIST, who knew their thoughts, said, 'Why do you ask? Shew

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Tenants will not be allowed to put their names in any entry, passageway, vestibule, hall or stairway of the building except in the proper place in the mail box provided for use of the apartments occupied by them, respectively.

2. No rugs shall be beaten on the porches, nor dust, rubbish or litter swept from the demised premises or any room thereof into any of the halls or stairways of the building containing said premises, except under the direction of the janitor thereof; nor shall any such dust, rubbish or litter or anything else be thrown or dropped from any of the windows or balconies of the said building.

3. Children shall not be permitted to loiter or play on the stairways or front porches of the building.

4. The side walls, vestibules, passageways, hallways, hall and stairways the outside of the several apartments shall not be obstructed or used for any other purpose than for ingress and egress to and from the respective apartments.

5. The water closets and other water apparatus shall not be used for any purpose other than that for which they were constructed, and no rubbish, garbage, ashes, or other substances shall be thrown thereon. Any damage resulting to them from misuse of the water or character of the waste shall be paid for by the tenant who caused it.

6. All provisions, milk, ice, groceries, furniture, bags, carriages, bicycles, boxes and other merchandise shall be taken into or removed from the demised premises through the rear door of this building. All damage to the building caused by the moving of articles through the building shall be paid for by the tenant, or person in charge of such articles.

7. Nothing shall be thrown from the tenants or from the building or from the premises or from the passageway, vestibule, hall or stairway of the building, nor shall anything be hung from the windows or placed on the outside window sills.

8. Dogs, cats, or other live reptiles or birds shall not be allowed on the demised premises.

9. No spikes, hooks or nails shall be driven into the walls or ceiling of the demised premises. No crating or boxing of goods or other articles will be allowed within demised premises.

10. The front hall, stairway and back porches shall not be used for storage of furniture or other articles.

11. There shall be no cooking or baking done except in the kitchen.

12. The water shall not be left running any unreasonable or unnecessary length of time in the demised premises.

13. The tenant shall interfere in any manner with any portion of the heating or lighting apparatus in or about the demised premises or with the building containing the same.

14. Laundry work shall be done only in the rooms provided for such purpose in the demised premises. Electric washing machines and apparatus shall be used and located in basement only. The use of water power washing machines is prohibited except by written consent of the owner.

(To equalize expiration dates of leases, write this lease to expire on the last day of any month other than April or September.)

This Indenture, made this Fourteenth day of December A. D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirtythree between RUSSELL SPENCER COMPANY AGENTS FOR YATES APTS. hereinafter called Lessor, and WILLIAM B. FLOHMAN hereinafter called Lessee,

Witnesseth, that Lessor, for and in consideration of the covenants and agreements hereinafter contained and made of part of Lessee, does hereby demise and lease to Lessee for use only by Lessee, and for a private residence or dwelling only, the premises known and described as follows, to-wit: Apartment No. 6, of the first floor of the building located at c. 7137 East Ave. Chicago, County of Cook, and State of Illinois, together with the appurtenances thereto belonging, in the City of

To Have and To Hold The Same for and during the term commencing on the first day of January A.D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and thirtyfour (1934) and expiring on the thirtyfirst day of December A.D. One Thousand Nine Hundred and thirtyfour (1934) inclusive.

and from year to year thereafter, until the term shall be terminated at the date last above mentioned, or at a like date in any subsequent year thereafter, by the giving by either party to the other of not less than sixty (60) days' notice in writing of such termination, which said notice shall be delivered in person or sent by registered mail, return receipt, at the place stipulated herein for the payment of rent, and when so delivered shall constitute the deemed premises.

In consideration of said claims, and of the powers and agreements hereinafter expressed, it is covenanted and agreed as follows:

First, Lessee shall pay to Lessor, at the office of Yates Apartments-7133 Yates Ave., the rent for each month of thirtyseven-50/100 ($37.50) dollars and cents for the term created by this lease. Said rent shall be due and payable on the first day of each and every month of said term, being agreed by the parties hereto that the time of each and all of such payments is of the essence of this agreement.

and the execution hereof, and is satisfied with the physical condition thereof, and his taking possession thereof shall be conclusive evidence of his receipt thereof in good order and repair, except as otherwise specified hereon, and agrees and admits that no representation as to the condition or repair thereof has been made by Lessor or his agent, which is not herein expressed, or endorsed hereon; and likewise agrees and admits that no agreement or promise to decorate, alter, repair or improve said premises, either before or after the execution hereof, not contained herein, has been made by Lessor or his agent.

Fifth.—Lessee shall keep the said premises and the walls, ceilings, floors, woodwork, paint, plastering, plumbing, pipes, fixtures, kitchen ranges, globes and glassware, and appurtenances thereto in said demised premises in a clean, tight and healthy condition, and in good repair, all according to the statutes and ordinances in such cases made and provided, and the directions of public officers thereunto duly authorized, all at his own expense, and shall yield the same back to Lessor upon the termination of the said lease, whether such termination shall occur by expiration of the term or in any other manner whatsoever, in the same condition of cleanliness, repair and tightness as at the date of the execution hereof, less by fire and reasonable wear and tear excepted. Lessee shall make all necessary repairs and renewals to walls, ceilings, floors, woodwork, paint, plastering, plumbing, pipes and fixtures in or upon said premises whenever damage or injury to the same shall have resulted from misuse or neglect, or any cause other than Lessor's acts, and replace broken globes, glass and fixtures with material of the same size and quality as that broken. Lessee likewise shall replace broken or worn-out parts of kitchen ranges or appurtenances thereto or appliances thereof when the same shall have been lost or broken by Lessee or any other person. If, however, the said premises shall not thus be kept in good repair and in a clean, tight and healthy condition by Lessee, as aforesaid, Lessor may enter the same, himself or by his agents, servants or employees, without such entering causing or constituting a termination of this lease or an interference with the possession of the premises by Lessee, and Lessor may replace the same in the same condition of repair, tightness, cleanliness and cleanliness as existed at the date of execution hereof, and Lessee agrees to pay Lessor, in addition to the rent hereby reserved, the expenses of Lessor in thus replacing the premises in that condition. Lessee shall not cause or permit any waste, misuse or neglect of the water, or of the water, gas or electric fixtures.

Sixth.—Lessee shall allow Lessor, his agents, employees or servants, or any other person thereunto authorized, free access to the premises hereby leased for the purpose of examining the same, to ascertain if the same are in a clean, tight and healthy condition, and to make such repairs or alterations as Lessor may see fit to make, and to exhibit the same to prospective purchasers of the building in which said premises are contained, and to prospective tenants in the place of Lessee, and for the last mentioned purposes to allow to be placed in and upon said premises, at such places as may be directed by Lessor, notices of "For Rent"; and Lessee undertakes and agrees that neither he nor any person within his control will interfere with said notices when thus placed. Lessee shall have the right of access herein mentioned with or without Lessee's consent. If Lessee or any person under his control, shall refuse or fail to allow access to said premises as in this paragraph provided, or to allow the placing of any "For Rent" notice as in this paragraph provided, or shall interfere with any such notice, he shall pay to Lessor, as liquidated damages and not a penalty, for each such violation a sum equivalent to three months' rent, it being recognized that the actual damages caused by such violations, while real and substantial are very difficult, if not impossible, of ascertainment.

Seventh.—Lessor shall not be liable to Lessee for any damage or injury to him or his property occasioned by the failure of Lessor to keep said premises in repair, and shall not be liable for any injury done or occasioned by wind or by or from any defect of plumbing, electric wiring or of insulation thereof, gas pipes, water pipes or steam pipes, or from broken stairs, porches, railings or walls, or from the backing up of any sewer pipe or downspout, or from the bursting, leaking or running of any tank, tub, washstand, water closet or waste pipe, drain, or any other pipe or tank in, upon or about said building or premises, nor from the escape of steam or water from any radiator, it being agreed that said radiators are under the control of Lessee; nor for any such damage or injury occasioned by water, snow or ice being upon or coming through the roof, skylight, trap-door, stairs, walks or any other place upon or near said premises, or otherwise, nor for any such damage or injury arising from any act, omission or negligence of co-tenants or of other persons, occupants of the same building or of adjoining or contiguous buildings or of owners of adjacent or contiguous property, or of Lessor's agents or Lessor himself, all claims for any such damage or injury being hereby expressly waived by Lessee.

Eighth.—Lessee shall not attach, affix or exhibit or permit to be attached, affixed or exhibited, except by Lessor or his agent, any articles of permanent character or any sign, attached or detached, with any writing or printing thereon, to any window, floor, ceiling, door or wall in any place in or about said premises, or upon any of the appurtenances thereto, without in each case the written consent of Lessor first had and obtained; and shall not commit or suffer any waste in or about said premises; and shall make no changes or alterations in the premises by the erection of partitions or the papering of walls, or otherwise, without the consent in writing of Lessor; and in case he shall affix additional locks or bolts on doors or windows, or shall place in said apartment, lighting or bathroom fixtures without the consent of Lessor first had and obtained, such locks, bolts and other fixtures shall remain for the benefit of Lessor, and without expense of removal or maintenance to Lessor. Lessor shall have the privilege of retaining the same (if he desires). If he does not desire to retain the same, he may remove and have the same, and Lessee agrees to pay the expense of removal and storage thereof.

Ninth.—Where the building is equipped for the purpose, Lessor shall furnish to Lessee, only in the tubs, basins, pipes and fixtures provided, the only means of hot water during the term of this lease, and in the radiators and pipes of hot water heat or steam heat at reasonable hours, if the weather and temperature require it, from the 1st day of October until the 30th day of April of the succeeding year for the use of Lessee, except when prevented by strike, accident, or other cause beyond the control or prevention of Lessor, and except during the repairing of the apparatus provided in said building for the furnishing of hot water and heat. Lessor shall not be held liable for any injury or damage whatsoever which may arise or accrue from his failure to furnish cold or hot water or heat, respectively, or of the pipes or of the failure, all claims for such injury or damage being hereby expressly waived by Lessee.

Tenth.—In case said premises shall be rendered untenable by fire, explosion or other casualty, Lessor may, at his option, terminate this lease or repair said premises within thirty days. If Lessor does not repair said premises within said time, or the building containing said premises shall have been wholly destroyed, the term hereby created shall cease and determine.

and remove Lessee or any other person who may be occupying the said premises or any part thereof as a member of his family or otherwise, and Lessor may use such force in and about expelling and removing Lessee and said other person as may reasonably be necessary, and Lessor may repossess himself of the said premises as of his former estate, but said entry of said premises shall not constitute a trespass or tortious entry or detainer, nor shall it cause a forfeiture of rents due by virtue thereof, nor a waiver of any covenant, agreement or promise in said lease contained, to be performed by Lessee. Lessee hereby waives all notice of any election made by Lessor hereunder, demand for rent, notice to quit, demand of possession, and any and all notices and demands whatsoever, of any and every nature, which may or shall be required by any statute of this state relating to forcible entry and detainer, or to landlord and tenant, or any other statute, or by the common law, during the term of this lease or any extension thereof, or any hold-over tenancy created by acts of the parties. The acceptance of rent, whether in a single instance or repeatedly, after it falls due, or after knowledge of any breach hereof by Lessee, or the giving or making of any notice or demand, whether according to any statutory provision or not, or any act or series of acts except an express written waiver, shall not be construed as a waiver of Lessor's right to act without notice or demand or of any other right hereby given Lessor, or as an election not to proceed under the provisions of this lease.

Thirteenth.—If Lessee's right to the possession of said premises shall be terminated in any way, said premises, or any part thereof, may, but need not, be relet by Lessor, for the account and benefit of Lessee, for such rent and upon such terms and to such persons and for such period or periods as may seem fit to the Lessor, but Lessee shall not be required to accept or receive any tenant offered by Lessee, nor to do any act whatsoever, or exercise any diligence whatsoever, in or about the procuring of another occupant or tenant to mitigate the damages of Lessee or otherwise, Lessee hereby waiving the use of any care or diligence by Lessor in the reletting thereof; and if a sufficient sum shall not be received from such reletting to satisfy the rent hereby reserved, after paying the expenses of reletting and collection, including commissions to agents, which shall be figured and allowed to Lessor at the rate of five per cent on the total amount of the rent reserved by such reletting, Lessee in no event to be less than Ten Dollars, and including also expenses of redecorating, Lessee agrees to pay and satisfy all deficiency, but the acceptance of a tenant by Lessor, in place of Lessee, shall not operate as a cancellation hereof, nor to release Lessee from the performance of any covenant, promise or agreement herein contained, and performance by any substituted tenant by the payment of rent, or otherwise, shall constitute only satisfaction pro tanto of the obligations of Lessee arising hereunder.

Fourteenth.—Lessee shall pay and discharge all costs, expenses and attorney's fees, which shall be incurred or expended by Lessor in enforcing the covenants and agreements of this lease, whether by the institution of litigation or in the taking advice of counsel, or otherwise.

Fifteenth.—If default be made in the payment of the rent hereinabove reserved, or of any installment thereof as herein provided, Lessee does hereby irrevocably constitute any attorney of any Court of Record in this State, attorney for him and in his name, from time to time, to waive the language of process and service thereof, to waive trial by jury, to confess judgment in favor of Lessor, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, and against Lessee, for the amount of rent which may be then due, by virtue of the terms hereof, or of any extensions or renewals hereof, or by virtue of any hold-over after the termination hereof, and which may be in default, as aforesaid, together with the costs of such proceedings, and a reasonable sum, but at no time less than Ten Dollars, for plaintiff's attorney's fees in or about the entry of said judgment, and for said purposes to file in said cause his cognovit thereof, and to make an agreement in said cognovit, or elsewhere, waiving and releasing all errors which may intervene in any such proceeding, and waiving and releasing all right of appeal and right to writ of error, and consenting to an immediate execution upon such judgment; and Lessee hereby confirms all that said attorney may lawfully do by virtue hereof. Lessee shall have a first lien on Lessee's interest hereunder, and on Lessee's property now or hereafter located in said premises, or elsewhere, to secure the payment of all moneys due hereunder, which lien may be foreclosed in equity, and in case of any such foreclosure proceeding, a receiver shall be appointed to take possession of said premises and property and relet the premises under order of court.

Sixteenth.—The obligation of Lessee to pay the rent reserved hereby during the balance of the term hereof, or during any extension hereof, or any hold-over tenancy created by acts of the parties shall not be deemed to be waived, released or terminated, nor shall the right and power to confess judgment given in clause fifteenth hereof be deemed to be waived or terminated, by the service of any five-day notice, other notice to collect demand for possession, or notice that the tenancy hereby created will be terminated on the date therein named, the institution of any action for forcible detainer or ejectment or any judgment for possession that may be rendered in such action, or any other act or acts resulting in the termination of Lessee's right to possession of the demised premises. The Lessor may collect and receive any rent due from Lessee, and payment or receipt thereof shall not waive or affect any such notice, demand, suit or judgment, or in any manner whatsoever waive, affect, change, modify or alter any rights or remedies which Lessor may have by virtue hereof.

Seventeenth.—The rules and regulations contained on the reverse side hereof are made a part hereof by reference and incorporated herein, and Lessee shall observe the same. Failure to keep and observe the said rules will constitute a breach of the terms of this lease in the same manner as if the said rules were contained herein as covenants, and a failure to observe the same shall be of the same effect. Lessee shall keep and observe such further reasonable rules and regulations as may later be required by Lessor, which may be necessary for the proper and orderly care of the building of which the premises herein demised are a part.

Eighteenth.—All covenants, promises, representations and agreements herein contained shall be binding upon, apply and inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, respectively of Lessor and Lessee.

Nineteenth.—The rights and remedies hereby created are cumulative and the use of one remedy shall not be taken to exclude or waive the right to the use of another.

Twentieth.—The words "Lessor" and "Lessee" wherever and whenever used herein, though expressed in the singular number, shall nevertheless be taken to apply to the persons, one or more, male or female, and by the firm or corporations, though plural in number, respectively, as the case may be described as Lessor or Lessee hereinabove, and all pronouns used herein and referring to said parties shall be construed accordingly, regardless either of number or gender thereof. If there be more than one Lessee the warrant of attorney contained in Clause "FIFTEENTH" is given jointly and severally and shall authorize the entry of appearance of, waiver of issuance of process and trial by jury, by and confession of judgment, against, any one or more of such Lessees, and shall authorize the performance of every other act mentioned in said Clause "FIFTEENTH," in the name of any one or more of such Lessees.

Fifth.—Lessee shall keep the said premises and the walls, ceilings, floors, woodwork, paint, plastering, plumbing, pipes, fixtures, kitchen ranges, globes and glassware, and appurtenances thereto in said demise premises in a clean, slightly and healthy condition, and in good repair, all according to the statutes and ordinances in such cases made and provided, and the directions of public officers thereunto duly authorized, all at his own expense, and shall yield the same back to Lessor upon the termination of the said lease, whether such termination shall occur by expiration of the term or in any other manner whatsoever, in the same condition of cleanliness, repair and slightness as at the date of the execution hereof, less by fire and reasonable wear and tear excepted. Lessee shall make all necessary repairs and repairs to walls, ceilings, floors, woodwork, paint, plastering, plumbing, pipes and fixtures in or upon said premises whenever damage or injury to the same shall be occasioned from misuse or neglect or any cause other than Lessor's acts, and replace broken globes, glass and fixtures with material of the same size and quality as that broken. Lessee likewise shall replace broken or worn-out parts of kitchen ranges or appurtenances thereto or appliances thereof when the same shall have been lost or broken by Lessee or any other person. If, however, the said premises shall not thus be kept in good repair and in a clean, slightly and healthy condition by Lessee, as aforesaid, Lessor may enter the same, himself or by his agents, servants or employees, without such notice as may be necessary, and cause a termination of this lease or an interference with the possession of the premises by Lessee, and Lessor shall not be bound to reimburse Lessee for the cost of repair, slightness, dirtiness and cleanliness as existed at the date of execution hereof, and Lessor shall not be bound to pay, in addition to the rent hereby reserved, the expenses of Lessor in thus restoring the premises to that condition. Lessee shall not cause or permit any waste, misuse or neglect of the water, or of the water, gas or electric fixtures.

However, Lessor shall not be liable to Lessee for any damage or injury to him or his property occasioned by the failure of Lessor to keep said premises in repair, and shall not be liable for any such damage or occasioned by wind or by or from any defect of plumbing, electric wiring or of heating, gas, gas pipes, water pipes or steam pipes, or from broken stairs, porches, railings or walls, or from any falling of any part of the building, or from any falling of any part of any tank, tub, washstand, water closet, or waste pipe, drain, or any other pipe or tank, or from any about said building or premises, nor from the escape of steam or water from any radiator, or being agreed that said radiators are under the control of Lessee, nor for any such damage or injury to him or his property occasioned by the falling of any part of the skylight, or gutter, or eave, or cornice, or any part of the roof, or by the falling of any part of the chimney, or of any stairs, walks or any other place upon, or near said premises, or of any other part of such building or premises, or from any falling of any part of any fixture, plaster or stucco, nor for any damage or injury done or occasioned by the falling of any fixture, plaster or stucco, nor for any damage or injury arising from any act, omission or negligence of co-tenants or of other persons, occupants of the building, or of adjoining or contiguous buildings or of owners of adjacent or contiguous property, or of any of the Lessor himself, all claims for any such damage or injury made by Lessee expressly waived by Lessee.

WITNESS the hands and heads of the parties hereto the day and year first above written.

Chas A Reagan, Mgr. Yates Apts.

Thirteenth.—If Lessee's right to the possession of said premises shall be terminated in any way, said premises, or any part thereof, may be used by Lessee, or by Lessee's assigns, for the same purpose and for such period or periods as Lessee may desire, and Lessee may use and occupy the same for such purpose and for such period or periods as may seem fit to the Lessee, but Lessee shall not be required to accept or receive any tenanted by Lessee, nor to do any act whatsoever, or exercise any diligence whatsoever, in or about the procuring of another occupant or tenant to mitigate the damages of Lessee or otherwise. Lessee hereby waiving the use of any care or diligence by Lessee in the relating thereof; and if a sufficient sum shall not be received from such letting to satisfy the rent hereby reserved, after paying the expense of reletting and collection, including commissions to agents, which shall be allowed and allowed to Lessee at the rate of five per cent on the total amount of the rent reserved by this relisting, but in no event to exceed Ten dollars, and including also expense of redecoration, repairs, alterations, and improvements, all deficiencies not so covered shall be made up in advance by Lessee, and Lessee shall operate as a lessor hereof, nor to release Lessee from the performance of any covenant, condition or agreement herein contained, and performance by any subtenant or tenant by the payment of rent or otherwise, shall constitute only satisfaction pro tanto of the obligations of Lessee relating hereunto.

Fifteenth.—If default be made in the payment of the rent hereinabove reserved, or of any installment thereof herein provided, and same be lawfully irretrievably forfeited by any authority of any Court of Record in this State, or for him in default, from time to time, after the expiration of the term of years of process and service thereof, to waive trial by jury, to confess judgment in favor of Lessor, his heirs, executors, administrators or assigns, And against Lessee, for the amount of rent which may be then due, by virtue of the terms hereof, or of any extensions or renewals hereof, or by virtue of any holdovers after the termination hereof, and which may be in default, as aforesaid, together with the costs of such proceedings, and a reasonable sum, but at no time less than Ten Dollars, for plaintiff's attorney's fees in or about the entry of said judgment, and for said purposes to file in said cause his cognovit thereof, and to make an agreement in said cognovit, or elsewhere, waiving and releasing all errors which may intervene in any such proceedings, and waiving and releasing all right of appeal or right of error, and waiving and releasing all claims and demands, except such as may be made and Lessee hereunto confirms all this said agreement may lawfully be by virtue hereof, and Lessee shall have a first lien on Lessee's interest hereunder, and on Lessee's property now or hereafter located said premises, or elsewhere, to secure the payment of all moneys due hereunder, which they may be foreclosed in equity, and in case of any such foreclosure proceeding, a receiver shall be appointed take possession of said premises and property and reinstate the premises under order of court.

Seventeenth- The rules and regulations contained on the reverse side herof are made a part herof by reference and incorporated herein, and Lessee shall observe the same. Failure to keep and observe the said rules will constitute a breach of the terms of this lease in the same manner as the said rules are contained herein as covenants, and a failure to observe the same shall be the same as if Lessee shall keep and observe such further reasonable rules and regulations as may hereafter be required by Lessor, which may be necessary for the proper and orderly care of the building in which the premises herein leased are a part.

Notwithstanding, the rights and knowledge hereby created are cumulative and the use of one remedy shall not be taken to exclude or waive the right to the use of another.

Jesus Calls Poor Widow Greater Than All the Rest

me a penny." They answered him, "Whose image, and whose name, is this upon it?" He answered them, "They said, Caesar's." Then he said half a penny. He, "Render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's." So they left him much amazed, and did marvel at his answers. He had much changed and did not know him any more. He saw that they knew their hearts and thoughts, as well as He knew that other men were conspiring against him, and that he would soon be put to death.

AS HE WAS teaching them thus, he sat near the Public Treasury, where people as they passed along the street, were accus-

a great deal of money. At last there came a Widow, who dropped in two mites, each half as much as the others were worth. So said Jesus, "For me this is more than all they have given, for they have given out of their abundance, but she has given out of her poverty. She has given all she had to live on."

Let us not forget the poor people who we think we are helping.
